

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 16, 1882.

DEVERE and Burke, equestriennes,
The subject of this rhyme,
Quietly have flickered out,
And failed to come to time.
The Trotting Club are badly bored,
Red hot mad and fussing,
And for the race will substitute,
Ten good miles of "cussing."

The Running Race Off.

The ten-mile running race will not take place to-day as announced, owing to the illness of Miss Lillian Devere, who is on that account unable to be present. Miss Burke will arrive by the Morning Mail to-day, prepared to carry out her contract with the Trotting Club. The following despatch was received yesterday:

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 15.—G. T. Simonds. Miss Burke left for your city this afternoon.
S. M. MONTGOMERY.

If Miss Devere should arrive during the week, it is possible the race may be arranged for a future day.

READ the new advertisements printed in the BULLETIN to-day.

MR. THOMAS WORMALD, of Covington, is in Maysville to-day.

THERE are more sunflowers in bloom at present than ever before.

MR. JAMES HENDRIXSON and family returned from Covington Monday.

MESSRS. ROBINSON & Co., on Monday, shipped a car load of bran to Richmond, Va.

A BAND of four Italian musicians have been in town for several days. They make good music.

A FREESTONE pavement has been laid in front of John Zech's saddle store on market street.

ON account of the failure of the running race, ladies will be admitted free to the trotting course to-day.

A SILK dress lost from a buggy in East Maysville, last Saturday night, has been recovered by Deputy marshal W. B. Dawson.

MR. WILLIAM WORMALD, formerly of this city, is now head bill-poster for Cole's great Circus and Menagerie.

ONE of the grinding stones at the Limestone Flour Mills broke on Saturday, causing a loss of about $300.

THE ladies should not fail to take advantage of the generous offer of Miss Lou Powling, printed elsewhere. For further particulars read the advertisement.

"MY GIRL" and Summer Rest," are the names of two very excellent brands of cigars made at the establishment of Mr. F. Devine. Those who have tried them say there are no better cigars, for the money, in the market. Try them.

MESSRS. MYALL & RILEY, during the present week, will offer special bargains in buggies, phaetons, spring wagons, farm wagons, reapers, mowers &c., of which they have a large stock, from the establishments of the leading manufacturers. You are invited to call and look at the stock on hand.

J. W. SPARKS & BRO., for the present week are offering decided bargains in certain lines of goods which are enumerated in their advertisement elsewhere. They are close buyers and close sellers. Their stock is large and includes a variety of goods that the public will be surprised to find are so cheap.
